

The Christmas Carolers Chapter 1

"Hey genius!" said a voice from outside. Ava peered from her bedroom window down onto the drive way at the front of their house. Unexpectedly, Lucas her not so clever brother, was stood balancing a gigantic Christmas tree on his shoulder. That second Ava hurried down stairs and out of the front door bumping into Lucas. Then when there were both outside they got the Christmas lights out and started to decorated the front of the house. They had a blow up Santa, Christmas dinosaur and a Reindeer and a Santa Glop here. Sigh. Their house looked really pretty.

Then it was time for tea and then they turned on their Christmas lights and when it was 6 o'clock they turned them off because it will waste electric.

Then in the night James Rixton came with a ladder to their house and took all the decorations. Then he put them on his own house. So in the morning they went outside to put the rubbish in the bin and noticed that the Christmas lights were gone. Ava called Lucas come quick the Christmas light are gone. Some body has took them.

Then someone caught James Rixton on camera and we watched the video on their granddad's computer. They saw him do it on the video. They told their parents and they said that will fight to get their Christmas lights back because it was a lot of money to buy. They were really devastated. Ava's problem was to build a snowman and knock it over again. Then Lucas's problem was to stop Ava from getting the lights back from James Rixton. Before Lucas wanted to get them back from James Rixton.
